Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO)

The Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO) administers and enforces federal laws and creates policies that make sure all Americans have equal access to the housing of their choice. If you feel your rights have been violated, let us know. Learn more about FHEO.

What's New in Fair Housing?

Save the date for HUD's 2008 Fair Housing Policy Conference!

The policy conference commemorates the 40th anniversary of the Fair Housing Act's signing by President Lyndon B. Johnson on April 11, 1968.

It will take place April 8 through April 11, 2008, in Atlanta, Georgia. Get more conference information and register today!
